The Check Collector (ISSN 1066-3061) is published quarterly by the American Society of Check Collectors, 10201 Grosvenor Pl., Apt. 902, Rockville, MD 20852. Subscription only by membership, dues $10 per year in the US ($14 per year in Canada and Mexico, $20 elsewhere). Periodicals postage paid at Rockville MD 20852 and additional mailing offices. POSTMASTER send address changes to: The Check Collector, PO Box 577, Garrett Park, MD 20896. All rights reserved.

To our members:

Write something for The Check Collector! We need articles about checks, check-related subjects, and fiscal documents. See the list of 32 areas of collecting interests on the inside back of the mailing cover for ideas.

We retype all material. Illustrations require an original or a good, clear, black and white copy, preferably as large as can be obtained. Original checks sent in are copied and returned carefully. Any questions, ask the Editor!

To our advertisers:

Deadline for advertising copy to run in the April-June issue of The Check Collector is May 15.

The Check Collector is an effective means of reaching the check collecting hobby, and our membership of collectors and dealers of checks and related financial documents. It contains feature articles about checks and check collecting and news about the hobby.

Advertising orders must be paid in advance and shall be restricted to checks and related fiscal documents, publications, accessories, and supplies. The ASCC accepts advertising in good faith, reserving the right to edit copy. Copy for ads must be camera-ready or the Editor will set it as best he can.

ASCC assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertising. However, it will reprint that portion of an advertisement in which a typographical error appeared upon prompt notification of such error.

All advertisements and payments should be submitted to the Advertising Manager at the address shown above.

The checks on the cover were selected to complement this issues's lead article on Horse Railways. The vignettes, similar but not identical, focus our attention on the horses and their knowing looks, rather than relegating them to the role of design elements or figures in a landscape.

The Oneida check at the top of the cover was printed by John Gibson, 82 Beckman St., N.Y., and the Springfield check was printed by J.C. Lutz & Co. Lith., Springfield, Mass.

The vignette above appears on several checks of the period around the end of the Nineteenth Century. This example came from a 1900 check of the Shenandoah Valley National Bank of Winchester, Virginia, printed by Wm Mann Co. of Philadelphia.

Advertising rates are as follows:

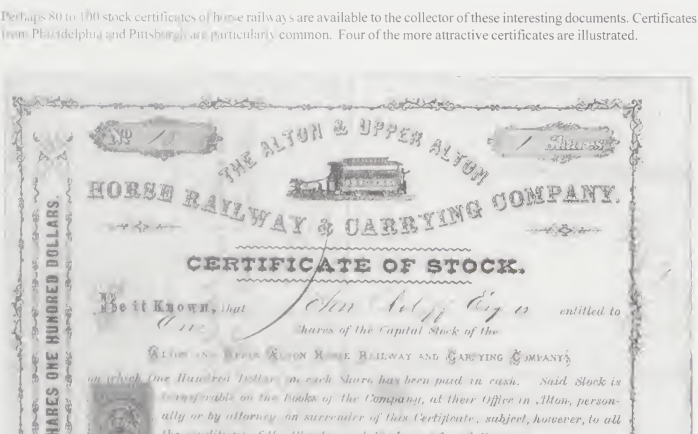
Horse Railways

by Coleman Leifer

Horse railways were the principal means of urban transportation during the period between the early 1850's and the late 1890's. The first horse railway ran between Prince and Fourteenth Street in lower Manhattan starting in 1832 but the rails protruded six inches or more above street level and interfered with wagons and other traffic. In 1851, Alphonse Loubat devised a grooved rail that laid flush with the pavement and horse railways then expanded at a rapid pace, particularly in large cities such as New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Baltimore. The largest horse railway was the West End Railway in Boston which, at its peak, had almost 8000 horses.

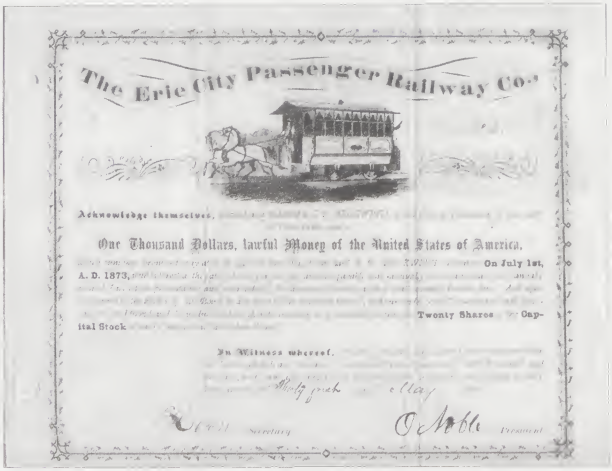
After the Civil War, horse railways began serving many small cities and towns and by 1890 there were about 1,000 of them. But in 1888 Frank Sprague, a Naval Academy graduate, after several years of experimenting, developed a practical electric motor that could function properly in spite of the rough environment of a street railway. In 1887 Sprague received a contract from the Richmond (VA) Union Passenger Railway to build an electrically operated railway line. The line was an immediate success and horse-operated railways were rapidly converted to electric power. By 1902 97 percent of street railway mileage was electrically operated. According to the railway net Internet site, the last horse railway that operated in the United States was the Sarah Street line in Pittsburgh, which operated until 1924.

Perhaps 80 to 100 stock certificates of horse railways are available to the collector of these interesting documents. Certificates from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh are particularly common. Four of the more attractive certificates are illustrated.

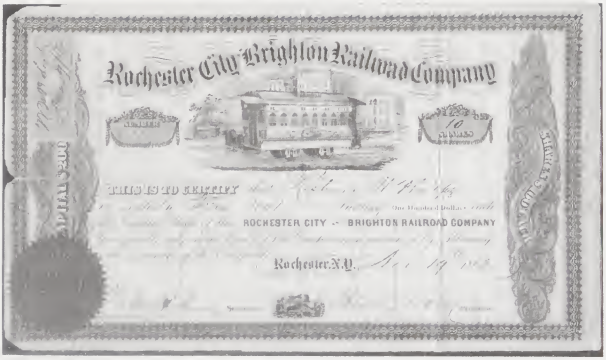


Alton & Upper Alton Horse Railway & Carrying Company; this Illinois line was 2.75 miles long with 20 horses and four cars (1890).

Coalville Passenger Rail Road. This Pennsylvania coal mining community was served by a horse railway just 2.5 miles long with 10 horses and four cars.

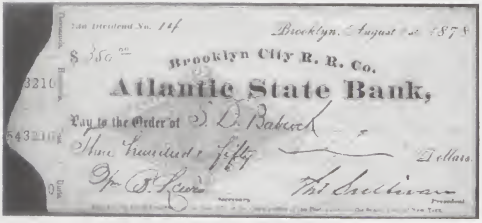


This attractive document is a bond. The Erie City Passenger Railway was 2.64 miles and had 34 horses, and 10 cars (1880). It was one of the first electrified street railways, having been converted in 1889.

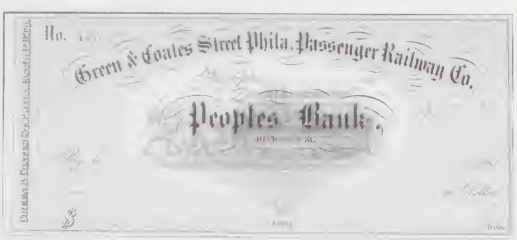


Rochester City & Brighton Railroad. This New York State street railway was 41 miles long and had 816 horses and 176 cars.

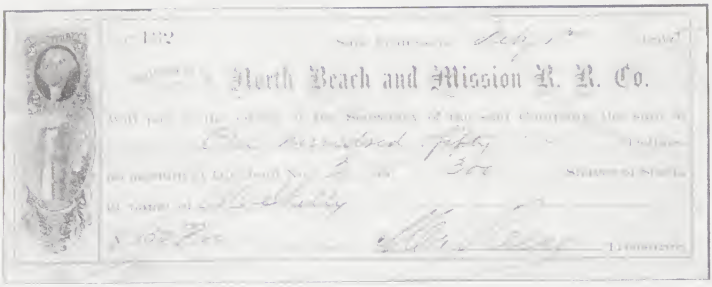
The number of horse railroad stock checks that have survived is much fewer than those whose stock certificates are available. Here are four examples.



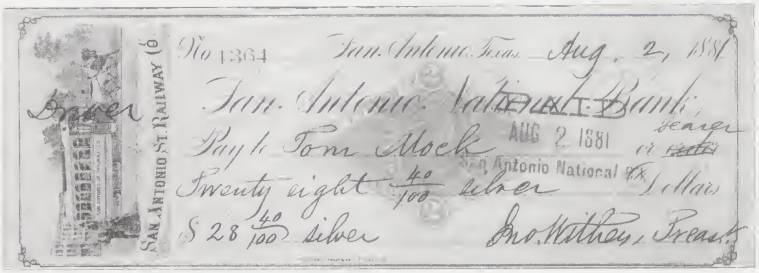
Brooklyn City Railroad, one of the largest horse railway systems, had, in 1890, 90 miles of track, 4783 horses and 1300 cars.



Green & Coates Street Philadelphia Passenger Railway: 7.25 miles, 237 horses and 37 cars.



North Beach & Mission Railroad (San Francisco); 16 miles, 420 horses, 64 cars.



San Antonio Street Railway. This was really a mule railway; it had 200 of them together with 40 cars for its 18 miles of track.

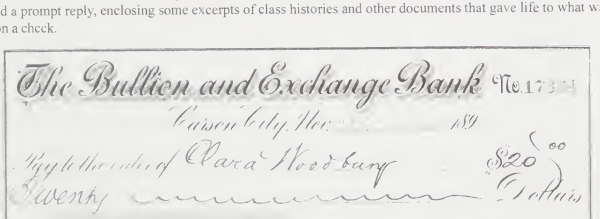
A Brief History

by Dr. Donald Burdick

Some time ago I purchased this draft from the Bullion and Exchange Bank of Carson City, Nevada, directing the Hanover National Bank of New York to pay $20 to Clara Woodbury in January of 1898. I would not have thought much more about the transaction it represented until I noticed that Ms Woodbury had endorsed it over to the order of Wellesley College. This interested me, so I wrote to the Registrar of Wellesley asking if they had any information concerning Ms Woodbury. I received a prompt reply, enclosing some excerpts of class histories and other documents that gave life to what was only a name on a check.



Class of 1899 Woodbury Clara Frances – Carson City, Nevada.

WOODBBURY, CLARA FRANCES

1 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal. Tel. Douglas 6820

"My family is far scattered throughout the West, from Texas to California. There are two nephews, each of whom has children, and two nieces, both unmarried, still in their early twenties. My great nieces and nephews, numbering two each, vary from 5 ½ years to 6 months of age, and, of course, are most wonderful to me, taking the place of grandchildren.

"I am now completing my thirteenth year as a special agent of the New York Life Insurance Company, and hope to remain active for at least seven years more. Fortunately I am in a business where maturity is an asset, not a liability. My travels in the last two years have taken me from the southern boundary of California to Skagway, Alaska.

"My activities outside the business have been mainly for social and civic betterment, my memberships being in clubs for that purpose. It has left little time for personal social activities, except along musical lines. Each year I have made it possible to take some cultural lecture course in the University of California Extension, this year's course being on the Art and Culture of China. I have served two years as a member of the Mayor's Citizens' Committee… I am ashamed to say that I have attended only one of the Wellesley Club's meetings during 1935, not because I would not, but because I could not, as all have been held in Oakland or Berkeley, and meant the giving up of an entire afternoon on a weekday."

WOODBBURY, CLARA FRANCES

1 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.

For seventeen and a half years Clara worked as a special agent with the New York Life Ins. Co. in San Francisco where she made her home, part of the time with a friend, part of the time alone. She had hoped to round out twenty years of service with them, but a year and a half ago, because of nervous exhaustion, she had to take an enforced vacation. Since June of 1941 she has been keeping house with a niece in Beverly Hills. Two nephews are in business – one in California, the other in Iowa, both above the age limit for the Army. Clara is still hoping to go back to her work to finish out her service with the company, but is not sure when she will be able to do it.

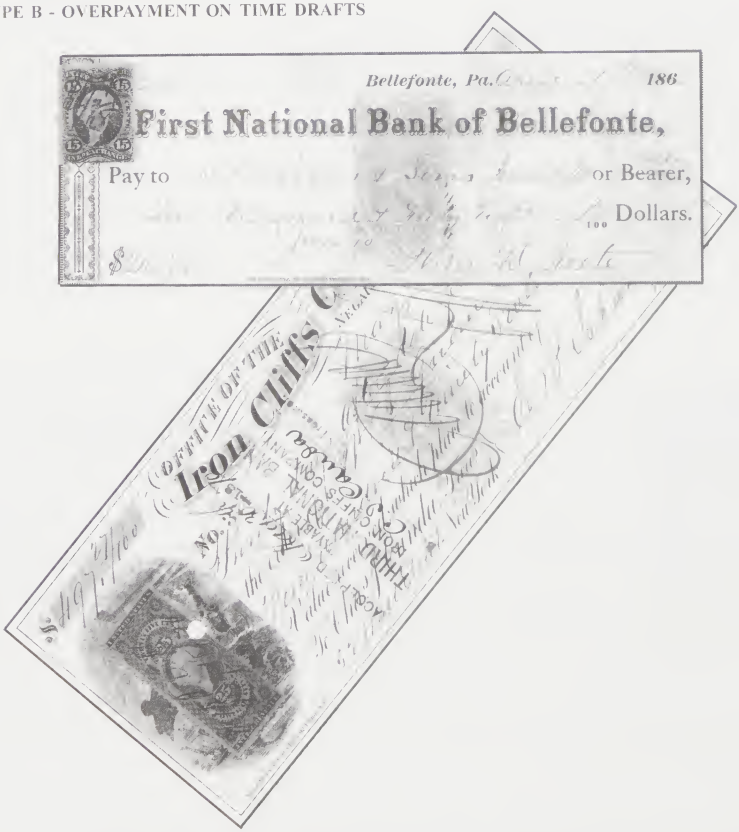
The Two Cent Revenue Stamped Paper of the United States, 1865-1883

by Ronald Lesher

(Part 5)

C. AMERICAN PHOTOTYPE COMPANY
TYPE B - OVERPAYMENT ON TIME DRAFTS



Bank checks and drafts payable at sight were taxed two cents. However, when an instrument was payable at a later date, as in the above examples, the inland exchange rate of 5¢ per $100 (or fraction thereof) was applicable. The 15¢ adhesive on the top example pays the correct tax for a time draft of $248.75; on the second example the 25¢ adhesive pays the correct tax for a time draft of $497.27. Each user has ignored the 2¢ stamp imprinted on the instruments, thus overpaying the tax. In 1868 instructive clauses were added to many imprints to remind the user what tax the imprinted stamp paid. The clauses were no doubt more concerned with eliminating underpayment, rather than correcting overpayments.

TYPE B - INSTRUCTIVE CLAUSE FOR CHECKS AND SIGHT DRAFTS

"Good Only For Checks and Drafts Payable at Sight"

SCHOOL OF MINES COLUMBIA COLLEGE

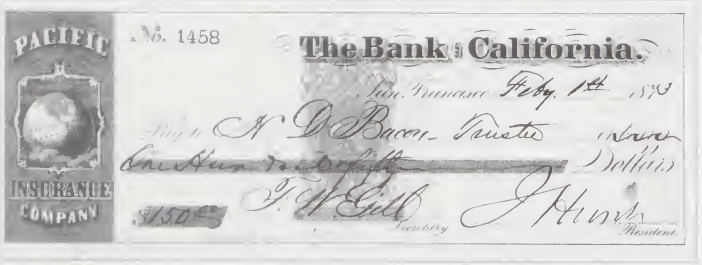
Pay to D. Van Nostrand or Order
Twenty one 40/100 Dollars
$21 40/100
School of Mines
C. F. Chandler
Dean of Faculty.



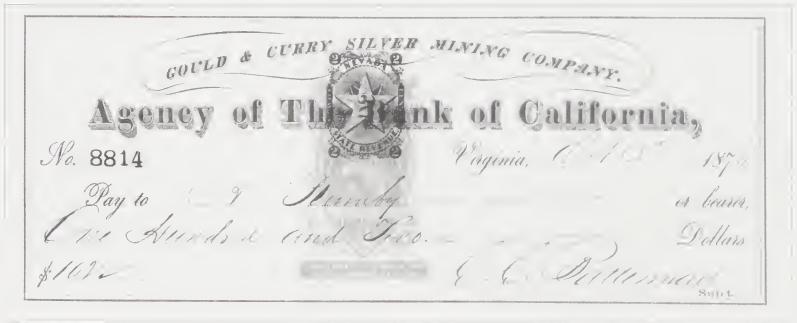
This instructive clause was required because these instruments were judged to be easily converted to time drafts, which would be liable to inland exhange tax of 5¢ per $100. This clause is most frequently encountered in an octagonal tablet at the base of the imprinted stamps.

[The bottom check is printed in green. The catalog number for the imprints is RN B-17.]

C. AMERICAN PHOTOTYPE COMPANY
TYPE B - BOTH FEDERAL AND NEVADA STAMPS IMPRINTED

"Good Only For Checks and Drafts Payable at Sight"
In Octagonal Tablet

The Nevada stamp in the above example has been printed at the same time as the check face before being sent to the American Phototype Company for the imprinting of the federal stamp.

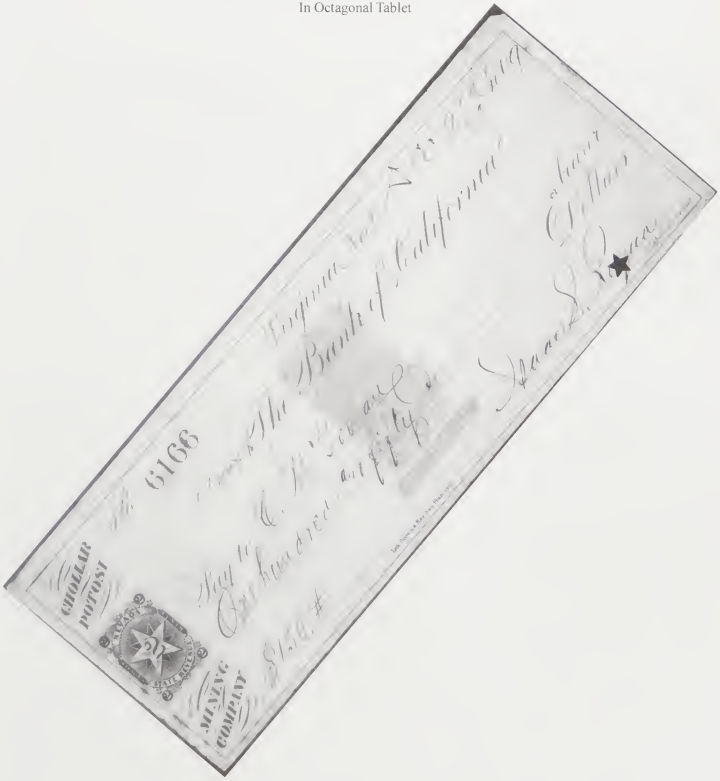


In this example the Nevada stamp was printed in a separate operation before the check was sent to the American Phototype Company for the federal stamp to be imprinted. Nevada is the only state which authorized the imprinting of stamps on checks or bank drafts.

[Both checks are printed in green. The Nevada tax stamp on the upper example is also printed in green, while the one on the bottom check is printed in orange-red. The catalog number for the imprint with the green revenue is RN B-17c and with the orange-red revenue is RN B-17b.]

C. AMERICAN PHOTOTYPE COMPANY
TYPE B - BOTH FEDERAL AND NEVADA STAMPS IMPRINTED

"Good Only For Checks and Drafts Payable at Sight"
In Octagonal Tablet



The Nevada stamp in this example was printed simultaneously with the check face before being sent to the American Phototype Company for the federal stamp to be imprinted. This example is from the second find of three examples (the first find contained three examples.) All from the first find are water-stained and have been called the "Purple Nevadas." This example has not been so affected and might be called maroon.

[The check is printed in the same maroon color as the stamp. The catalog number for this imprint is RN B-17d.]

8 Copies Recorded

This inverted tablet has been recorded only on checks of Tallant & Co., Bankers, used from November 11 through December 30, 1869.

[The checks are printed in brown. The catalog number of the inverted tablet error is RN B-17a.]

To be continued. This is the sixth installment in a continuing series which will eventually reprint Ron Lesher's gold-medal winning exhibit of two-cent Civil War revenue stamped paper. Comments in brackets were added by the Editor when it was not obvious from the text as to the color of the checks and/or imprints.

A Celebrity Check

It could be yours!

George Clooney

George Clooney is best known for his role as the maverick pediatrician, Doctor Doug Ross, in the long-running television show, ER. Clooney had worked in some 15 other shows, including The Facts of Life, Roseanne, and the one-episode Sunset Beat, before hitting it big on the popular hospital drama.

His career in movies has ranged from a role in Return of the Killer Tomatoes, through a cameo appearance in The Thin Red Line, to the lead in Batman. He starred in The Peacemaker, which is reported to have grossed $120 million worldwide, and The Perfect Storm. Clooney exhibited a flair for comedy in O Brother Where Art Thou. His latest effort is the role of Danny Ocean in Ocean's Eleven.

Clooney was born George Timothy Clooney on May 6, 1961, at Lexington, Kentucky. He attended Northern Kentucky University.

This check from 1992 was written to cover a mortgage payment of some $3,600. It can be a part of your collection if you win the ASCC Clooney Raffle. Send one dollar per chance to Phil Ryman at his address on page 3. All proceeds will go to the ASCC.

The check is a donation from Ray Anthony, of Ray Anthony, Inc., Roseburg, OR.

Announcements

In order to save space in an issue where we are running the membership list, I'll keep this brief.

We should have elected Board members early in the year, but I tend to forget that half of us need to be re-elected each year. Technically, at the end of 2001 we should have reaffirmed Board membership of our Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, as well as Bob Spence. I talked a bit with Bob earlier and suggested we simply make him a Member Emeritus, and he was agreeable to that course of action. Therefore, the slate to be re-elected will be composed of Michael S. Turrini, Coleman Leifer, Dick Naven and Phillip G. Ryman. Phil is currently handling the Checkpool as well as sporadic ASCC raffles and auctions, and it would be good to have him serve as a member of the Board.

If there are any other nominations, please direct them to my attention within the next month. If there are none, election of the four members named will be confirmed in accordance with our revised bylaws.

Don't be hesitant about nominating yourself, if you are interested.

I recently learned of ASCC member Bill Buford's death on January 21 of this year. I did not know Mr. Buford personally, but a few days before he died he called me to say that he wanted to send me a small selection of his rarest revenue stamped paper so I could scan the items and illustrate them in The Check Collector in this issue, in color. He was willing to underwrite the cost of adding several pages in color, if such was in reason.

We had a very pleasant talk, at the end of which he said that he was under medication and very tired. Unfortunately, he passed away before we could put his plan into action. As I said, I did not know him personally, but from that one conversation it was clear that I would have enjoyed having known him.
